

6.4 Presentation Requirements

Wednesday, March 14, 2018 7:16 AM

CONTENT:

- Lab purpose clearly presented
- Visual and descriptive presentation of procedural steps
- Organized presentation of all measured data
- Partial Pressure determination explained and calculated
- Mole determination explained and calculated
- Mass determination explained and calculated
- Molar mass determination and comparison explained and calculated
- Percentage Error calculations and positive/negative attribution explained
- Suggestions for improved data collection are clear and logical

STYLE:

- All group members have a significant speaking part
- Eye contact is made with entire audience
- Voice is clear and loud enough
- Gestures and body positioning enhances presentation and is not distracting
- Images enhance presentation
- Text color choice has high contrast and is easy to read
- Text is large and concise